IN MEMORIAM
In Memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Serinia Pitt Megginson, who departed this life, July 10, 1955.

July brings sad memories
Of our mother, gone to rest.
But you will never be forgotten
By the ones who love you best.

One year of deep sorrow,
Lonesome hours of pain,
But your memory is as dear today
As the hour you passed away.

We watched you suffer day by day,
And tried to help in every way,
But all we could do, was stand by
and see you pas.
Into the Savior's arms at last.

Faith and prayer have given us strength and hope
That we shall meet again, we know not when,
And clasp your hand and Papa's in the better land, never to part again.
—Sadly missed by Children and Grandchildren.

A LIVE WEEKLY NEWSPAPER AT HISTORIC APPOMATTOX COURT HOUSE VIRGINIA

Historic Appomattox Gave Unity and Peace to America

VOLUME 64 NUMBER 31 APPOMATTOX, VIRGINIA, THURSDAY AUGUST 2, 1956 Subscription Rate: $2 Per Year

Father Darkleaf

By c. h. r.

Today, July 31, would have been the birthday of the late Mrs. Ella Ferguson. The occasion calls to mind that five years ago, on the birthday of Mrs. Ferguson's birthday, Miss Brightleaf in her column, "Around Town," suggested that her friends shower her with cards. The suggestion" and from then on many around Appomattox and it became a thing before Mother Brightleaf's listing quite a number of days in her column. Eventually the list built up and was given a name heading: "Birthday List" under "Personal" Page. We have been very happy to have a birthday list in our newspaper, and so far as we know, I have never seen the feature in any other paper. The listings sent in to us by our readers, and we know of some readers who have skipped this feature and built lists of birthdays.

It might also be mentioned that last week marked the 22nd year since the death of State Senator Carter Ferguson.

Time up to the farm of Mrs. Ella Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Kraus Monday evening, when Mrs. Ken Coleman. Heavens to Betsy, I have never seen so many people at one place! Mr. Kraus has raised dogs and knows the art of raising them. Many believe that little boy is entitled to have a puppy, and—thanks to Mrs. Kraus and while the dog was being rounded up, Mrs. Anderson set out gathering some flowers for her Brightleaf and your Editor. We set out the evening.

Mrs. Hudgins was telling us of a new kind of cantaloupe he and Mrs. Hudgins liked and they had been raising the seeds onto his own pile, and now he has a volunteer patch of his own.

Last week we mentioned that we were unable to find any figs this year in Eastern Carolina, where we usually round up a supply. So Mrs. Ernest F. Smith, of Spout Farm came down this week with 15 pints of nice figs! He has a specialty type fig that suits this area, and has been bearing for years. Glad to know that there is a Appomattox County.

Speaking of, our old friend, William Wright, dropped in on us unexpectedly the other day. He had put on a lot of weight, but we recognized him right off. He has been stationed in California for several years, and now being transferred to an Air Service Base at Myrtle Beach, S. C. He will be in the base. He served in England during World War II and married a pretty English girl. He is from Pamplin and always remembers to send me Christmas cards during his travels.

Mr. Wright, of the famous Wright family of inventors of the airplane, was born 85 years ago this month: Aug. 19, 1871. He was a student and relating man. In his younger years, he received innumerable invitations, but rarely attended public functions, and even when he did, refused to be a speaker. On such occasions. To a delegation of business men, he explained: "I like speaking in my own way. I like to put that in the kingdom of birds, the parrot is the best talker and the worst flier."

Eisenhower made a fine showing at the State Democratic Convention in Richmond last Friday. In addition to furnishing the entertainment, the speaker, Appomattox had the largest county delegation present.

There is something that endears the man in a rut to think he is in the groove. —C Y N. Peace.

Many local folks were in New York City when the recent national air raid alert was sounded. Did they report the occasion was taken for real, and they had to run for cover?

It's a wonder of the world is, but what will happen next. Guess, Wis., News.

The 1931 graduating class of Appomattox High School held a reunion at the Surrender Grounds on Sunday, July 29. Seventeen of the 29 members of the class were present, together with their families.

Picnic dinner was served on the grounds at the McLean House, and an hour of fellowship followed, during which time those present found out what had been happening to the members during the past 25 years.

An interesting booklet, entitled "Reunion of Class of '31," prepared by Mrs. Gertrude Stewart Wooldridge, of Covington, Virginia, was presented to each member. This booklet contained list of class officers, class prophecy of 1931, class history, poem, song, and interesting information on each member of the class, the information having been obtained by a questionnaire sent out by Mrs. Wooldridge prior to the day of the reunion. The class is indebted to Mrs. Wooldridge for her efforts in making the reunion possible and such a huge success. It was voted to hold another reunion five years hence.

It was announced today that Mr. Kenneth W. Christopher, of Stanfield, North Carolina, has accepted appointment to be Principal of the Appomattox High School.

He wil succeed Mr. H. E. Kerr, who resigned as A. H. S. Principal in order to accept appointment in the Arlington area.

Mr. Christopher is 35 years of age, is married. Mr. and Mrs. Christopher have one child, a daughter three years old.

For the past two years, he has been Principal of the Stanfield-Locust Schools (high school and elementary school) at Stanfield, N. C.

He will receive his Master of Arts degree this month at the University of North Carolina. He served 4½ years in the U. S. Army in World War II. He is a communicant of the Methodist Church.

He plans to arrive here August 22, to assume his duties preparatory to the opening of the school session on September 6.

The acceptance of the principalship at A. H. S. leaves only one vacancy to be filled on the staff of school teachers, the local school authorities having succeeding in replacing a number of teachers who left their positions after the past term. A complete list of teachers is now in preparation.

Meanwhile, Mr. and Mrs. Kerr are leaving Appomattox for their new home. They carry the best wishes of a host of friends, and appreciation for their services in the school system.

Martin, manager of the Employment Office in Farmville has announced. Martin pointed out that about 41 experienced curers from the Virginia area were called to Canada last year, and that a similar number likely will be recalled to help with the 1956 crop.
